How does this year deliver your curriculum intent?	Studies in Year 8 will give students a deeper understanding of their country's place in the wider world, from the growth of Britain's status as an industrial power, the birth of the Empire and its international relations in the 20th century over the course of two world wars. A greater emphasis on British politics, both domestic and foreign, gives students more of a grasp of the political climate in today's society.
